TSIP TSAP Tsip Tsap

A passage opens up through lush vegetation, like an invitation to adventure. Intrigued, a child dares to take the plunge. Thus begins an escape amidst the flowers, plants, and animals, discovering a bustling natural world, inhabited by an unsuspected magic. From dawn to dusk, through the seasons and encounters, the child experiences a magical stroll, all senses awakened.

Anaïs Krebs is an artist from Switzerland, Tsip tsap is her very first picture book as an author and illustrator. Tsip tsap lifts a corner of the veil on her inner world, imbued with poetry and a touch of nostalgia, with Japanese and Nordic influences, and always close to nature.

- An enchanted stroll!
- Anaïs Krebs's first picture book encourages children to observe and listen to the surrounding nature, on tiptoe, and to gradually discover their own imaginary worlds.
